Footnotes

WELL EQUIPPED chased the leader from the outset, bid after five furlongs, shook clear in the furlong grounds then just lasted late. ALWAYS A PLEASURE made a middle move through the second turn then rallied down the middle of the track and finished well to be get ting to the winner late. DAYDREAMIN GRACIE also made a middle move and rallied late but was outkicked to the wire. NIGHT BRIGADE was well placed but lacked a strong late response. WARREN'S PEACOCK set a moderate pace for six furlongs then weakened. ARCINA was being handled at the break and broke with his head turned and failed to recover. ROAR OF THE KITTY showed little. RIPE PLUM was through after a half. CASCO BAY chased to the second turn then faded. There was a stewards inquiry conducted into the race before the results were declared official.
