PASSIONATE CAPER saved ground stalking the pace, got through along the rail into the stretch, took the lead, inched away in midstretch but settled for the show. PHONE IN THE ZONE had good early speed, dueled inside then inched away on the backstretch, lugged out on the turn, tried to come back on in the stretch and was edged between foes late for third. PRINCESS O'HARA chased outside then between horses or off the rail and lacked the needed late kick. STELLAR LIGHT stalked the pace three deep between horses, continued between rivals into the turn and weakened. PAS DE CHAINE steadied when squeezed at the start, settled well off the rail, came outside into the stretch and passed tiring rivals. PIMLICO GIRL close up stalking between horses then a bit off the rail, angled in on the turn and weakened. UPNOTDOWN stalked the pace five wide on the backstretch, dropped back into the turn, gave way and was eased up late.
