Footnotes

DRESSED IN GOLD, forwardly placed inside from early on, moved through from the rail to take over nearing the stretch, drew clear, then was hard ridden to hold ONE TOUGH CAT safe. The latter, outrun early and five or six wide throughout, commenced a sweeping run approaching the stretch while well off the inside and finished willingly. NEVER BEEN KISSED, always well placed while tracking the leaders three or four wide, loomed prominently for the drive but lacked a closing response. DEPARTMENT, never far back, was empty when the test came. CURVE AHEAD, outrun until the stretch, offered a mild gain. OCTOBER OPTIMIST was finished leaving the turn. SWISS GOLD was used up chasing the leaders the opening half. SISTER CRIMSON was outrun. LEAH'S PROMISE swerved out while breaking alertly, sprinted clear, edged inside, made the pace for nearly a half and faded. FORGOT NOT TO was outrun.
