Footnotes

THERE RUNS HATTIE stumbled at the start, settled inside, edged up leaving the turn, split foes four wide leaving the three-sixteenths pole, bumped with TWO DOT SLEW, then drove clear late. PUT ME IN, briefly in front after the break, stalked the dueling leaders soon after, took over, opened a clear advantage in the upper stretch but wasn't a match for the winner late. TWO DOT SLEW stumbled at the start, tracked the pace four or five wide, was bumped by the winner from the inside in the upper stretch, then lacked a late response. RAVISH ME was sent to the fore inside early, made the pace for a half and weakened thereafter. APRICE, in front briefly on the backstretch, pressed RAVISH ME while outside that one and tired leaving the turn. DAD SMOKED CIGAR was outrun.
