Footnotes

REVIVAL RIDGE moved to the front three wide early, edged closer to the rail on the backstretch, went along under careful handling, moved clear in the final furlong, then was all out to last while bumped on the wire by the runner-up. VOY POR UNO MAS tracked the winner from the outset four wide, had aim at REVIVAL RIDGE in the final yards, leaned in and bumped that one on the wire and missed. SELF MADE MAN worked his way inside on the backstretch, maneuvered out five or six wide for the drive and was going well at the end. CHESTERMITE, up close two or three wide from early on, eased out four or five wide for the drive and wasn't good enough. POSCHNER, bumped at the start by WAVE LAND GROOVY, was outrun to the stretch, circled foes ten wide for the drive and found his best stride late. WHAT A CHARACTER settled four or five wide, was unhurried, advanced nine wide when straightened for the drive and failed to gain in the late going. ART AND SOUL, within easy striking distance to the stretch and between foes, lacked a closing bid. WINYAH edged in early to stalk the pace four or five wide and weakened when straightened for the drive. SIX SHOTS (GB) never menaced. CHIEF THIEF raced within striking distance in behind horses four or five wide for six furlongs and weakened. WAVE LAND GROOVY leaned in at the start bumping POSCHNER, raced within striking distance to the stretch and faltered.
