Footnotes

SHRILL settled in hand, ranged into striking distance through the turn, wheeled to the outside entering the stretch, reeled in the leaders and quickly drew clear. LEE CHAPEL disputed the pace two wide, was no match for the winner but stayed on to narrowly earn the place. FORT DEFIANCE dueled for the lead along the inside, weakened slightly during the drive and settled for the minor award. WHY PRETEND was unhurried into stride, circled six wide but found hid best stride too late. ELUSIVE ACTION was allowed to settle, came three wide and finished with some late run. BARRY DALE saved ground to little avail. HEIR JOE was slow into stride and never a factor. BET THE POWER contended five wide for a half and retreated. IT DOESN'T ADD UP was close up three wide, but stopped before going a half.
