Footnotes

C. C. SWEEP rushed to the lead, shook clear through the turn, and easily held the advantage. QUILLO chased the clear pace inside, finished well under heavy urging. GIRLS FIRST LOVE stalked racing four deep, vied in the upper stretch but lacked the needed late response. JAZZ MINE stalked the pace, bore out seven wide on the turn, then finished evenly. DEPUTY DOT COM hustled along between horses, raced three wide and flattened out. TOP BRACKET contended between horses, tired in the upper stretch and faded. SULTRY CARRIE trailed throughout.
