Footnotes

COLTERKIND vied for the lead while racing four-wide, took the lead nearing the quarter pole, quickly drew clear and maintained a safe advantage. ROAD AFLEET was never far back, raced blocked behind horses on the inside from the seven-sixteenths to the eighth pole, angled out to split foes and finished fast when clear. APRIL SURPRISE saved ground dueling for the lead and weakened late. KING JEREMY prompted the pace for a half mile while racing three-wide and tired. EDNEATOR steadied from between horses while in tight nearing the seven-sixteenths pole, then came four-wide into the stretch and finished willingly. DELIGHTFUL DEVIL disputed the pace from between horses, steadied nearing the three-eighths pole and gave way.
