Footnotes

OLMANSEW was away alertly to press the pace from the outside, moved up to take command nearing the eleven-sixteenths pole, opened a clear lead with three furlongs to run and was ridden out to the wire to increase his advantage. I AM THE JAZZMAN lacked early speed, saved ground through the turns, angled out nearing the quarter and finished with good energy. NICK'S GOLD broke sharply to set a pressured pace from the inside and gave way in the drive. RAINIER was never far back while racing along the inside and gave way through the final quarter. HIT THE JUICE lacked early speed, raced wide through the second turn and did not menace. ROCKCRESS raced far back throughout.
