Footnotes

HEAVENLY REFRAIN pressed the runaway leader on the inside, edged away leaving the turn, was kept to task to maintain the advantage. PANCHITA hustled along racing three deep throughout, ranged up late to challenge the top one, but was kept at bay. SPITE AND MALICE stalked the pace saving ground, slipped through in the upper stretch, made a steady late gain once through. GRAY DOUGH was unhurried and dropped far back, made a late gain finding her best stride late. BRIARTIC BLAST swung five wide entering the stretch, but failed to respond. STRAWBERRY ROLLER lunged at the start and lost ground, pulled to the lead immediately, was used up a quarter to home and stopped.
