Footnotes

ANNIE'S BOU PEEP stalked the pace along the inside, responded readily when roused with five-sixteenths to run, split horses leaving the bend, angled out three deep entering the lane, and quickly drew clear once clear. DIVINE IMAGE hopped at the start to get away slowly, pulled to the fore racing three wide, opened a clear lead through the turn, was collared nearing the furlong marker, was unable to resist the winner, but managed to last for the place. NOTO PONUS steadily advanced circling four wide, and finished willingly to be up for the show. WENT SOUTH saved ground to little avail. KEY TO B CRAFTY pressed the tempo from between horses, but weakened leaving the turn and faded. SIZZLIN' KNIGHT flashed brief foot from the inside, but was through after a half and stopped.
