Footnotes

DISCO DANCER in the second flight while between foes, brief wait behind rivals out of turn, angled out five wide to bother outer foes, set down, finished with good courage to be in time. T REX forwardly placed while also in the second flight, patient, slipped through along the rail under clever handling turning for home, gained the advantage, could not contain the winner. SWISS AGENDA off the pace and the inside, bumped, floated out five wide turning for home, resolute for the place. LIL FORTY bumped at the start, raced back, asked late turn, carried out six wide into the lane, improved, outfinished for the show. FIRST DOWN CORY lacked speed, continued back into the stretch, brief wait midstretch, improved through traffic. SMALLTOWNBOY lacked speed, angled out a bit, improved outside. MR. JOHN JOHN settled in traffic, bumped while in tight and four wide between foes exiting the turn, lacked room midstretch.

SPEED TO BROADWAY vied up front off the inside, allowed the runner the rail into the lane and began to weaken. FUZZY HAT ducked in, checked up at the start, raced well back as a result, moved far outside, passed some tiring rivals. JUMP BACK forwardly placed and outside, weakened. LUCKY STRAND bumped at the start, failed to respond. BORAMIR set or forced the pace off the inside for a half and gave way. LOOKIN COCKY far back throughout. TIME FOR COFFEE staged a steady retreat.
