Footnotes

STORM TAMER bumped start, never far back, advanced on the leader turning for home, engaged that rival and wore him down under firm handling. RON JOVI set the pace along the inside, gave ground grudgingly to the winner until late, clearly 2nd best. MY FRIEND TACK chased the leader, weakened. ROSS LAD went evenly paced in lacking a late bid. GOLD SOUL lacked serious bid. IN A RUNAWAY broke out, bothered a pair of foes, had little left for the drive. COOPER JAMES failed to menace off the rail. M. V. P. HONOR broke out, bothered at the start, also was always back. SILVERKNOWES was outrun. LEESTOWN CREEK off slow, never close. ALONG CAME JOHN forwardly placed for a half off the inside, stopped far turn. MR MILITARY well back, pulled up backstretch, vanned off.
