Footnotes

GOOD LUCK SHAMROCK closest to the leader, went after that one when into the stretch, bid, drove clear. BILLY BO sprinted clear soon after a good break, continued to maintain a daylight advantage into the lane, could not contain the winner the final sixteenth, comfortable held the place. MR. BUZ in the second flight just off the inside after an alert break, lacked a serious late kick while coming back for the show. UNCLE BRAW last away, trailed early toward the inside, mounted a belated rally while continuing along the rail. MIRROR DANCER went evenly paced four wide. LAURENT DU VAR was never a serious threat. MR JESS E settled in the second group, weakened in the final furlong. JENNIE'S LITTLEMAN five wide out of the turn, little in the way of a rally. E Z BEN six wide out of the turn, also remained back. DONNAS LIL CYCLONE failed to menace. ROYAL LETTERS always back. COWBOY TWO STEP checked up in traffic into the lane, fell back.
