Footnotes

DIVA MARIA was always in contention, dueled with FARAH T SALUTE over the last two jumps and held on at the finish. FARAH T SALUTE was always close up, went head to head with the winner through the stretch but just couldn't get there. SWEET SHANI (NZ) was unhurried for two miles, rallied in far turn for the final time but could not gain any further in the stretch. MOON DOLLY (GB) stalked pace, took command three jumps from and flattened out. DYNASKILL raced in the back, rallied and closed gap in the stretch. MISS CROWN raced mid pack but was never far off, ran gamely through the stretch but just couldn't pass rivals. JELLYBERRY assumed command for two miles then tired. THE MANNER BORN was through after a mile and was no threat here. PTARMIGAN was allowed to settle, got into the race four jumps from home rallied through the stretch on the outside gained a slight lead over the winner going to the last, made an awkward jump and fell at the last jump. DAYLIGHT FIRE ran out at the second jump leaving the course.
