Footnotes

RAJA'S RHYTHM was close early, drove up inside the leader entering the turn, vied briefly then edged clear, had command to the finish and held sway under a drive. AT THE ALTAR stalked from the rail, closed leaving the turn, was determined in the stretch but hung late and bled. LADY GINA ROSA broke very sharply, moved clear and to the rail, set a reserved pace, was headed and cleared midturn, chased to the stretch and tired. KARLEY'S MELODY pressed the pace, was close three-deep entering the turn, chased from between rivals then failed to muster the needed late response. ROMAN ROMANCE was close early, stalked four-wide on the turn then flattened out in the stretch. RUGOSA ROSA was always outrun.
