Footnotes

CHRIS'S BAD BOY had inside speed to take a slim lead, opened up on the far turn then was kept to task in an off the rail drive to stave off late comer. BIBYE stalked the early duel after saving ground, angled off rail, was 3-wide and bidding into the stretch, went after the leader and gained with a good rally. MAGIC WALK had speed between on the clubhouse turn then backed off to stalk, bid outside on the far turn then evened out. LATIN TECHNOLOGY gained ground with an off the rail effort but did not threaten the top three. DIAMOND T forced the pace for six furlongs while outside the leader then tired. SHARDS OF SILVER was well back and never a serious factor. ROZYS ACCOUNT off the pace from the outset and between foes, lacked a rally. INSPIRED CALL had an early rail move into the far turn then faded.
