Footnotes

SWEET SHANI (NZ) broke well to stalk the pace through the first circuit, stumbled at the sixth jump while gaining a short lead, increased her advantage into the far turn, drew off to a commanding lead just before the last jump, was going very well when the rider looked back at the competition and then eased the winner well before the finish. LONESOME NUN was taken in hand while racing on the outside near the back of the pack through the first circuit, commenced improving her position into the backstretch the second time, was well placed to rally into the last turn but couldn't match strides with the winner. UPPER GULCH broke well to stalk the winner to the upper stretch and tired. DYNASKILL was rank before the start, raced wide at or near the back of the pack, trailed throughout the second circuit and passed tired rivals. RED DIRT GIRL broke well to take command through the first circuit, stumbled on the fifth jump, went very wide before the sixth jump, stalked the winner to the eighth jump, tired and was pulled up before the last jump. WELL FASHIONED was unhurried after the start, landed awkwardly after the seventh, eighth and ninth jumps, and was pulled up before the last jump. THE MANNER BORN trailed and was pulled up before the eighth jump.
