Footnotes

NOTHING BUT POWER was unhurried, two path on the last turn, eased out, asked, gained and was along in time. CROWN'S DOMINION set the pace, dueled after a half mile, kicked clear in the lane and then just missed. TRICKY BREAK was well placed along the three path on the turns, lodged a bid but was no match for the top two. STAY HIGH STANLEY lagged back along the rail and then made a late bid. SUAVE FOX gained to challenge after a half mile, dueled on the final bend and faded. THE BUTLER DID IT saved ground and tired. MORDEN vied for the lead briefly after a half mile and was done on the final turn.
