Footnotes

PINKY FREUD vied for the lead early, shook loose on the backstretch, showed the way, widened some and then under the whip outran CALSBY to the line. CALSBY lagged far back, gained some ground on the last turn, angled out in the lane, responded to pressure and closed fast. EAST OF SUEZ vied for the lead early, tracked after a half mile along the four path, chased and then finished well. SUNSHINE NUMBERS was unhurried early, gained some along the four path on the last turn and then hung. MISTY CRUSADERTWO three path up the backstretch, between foes leaving the three-eighth pole and tired. LORD BUCK was well placed along the rail for a half mile and tired.
