Footnotes

MOR CHANCES contested the lead along the rail with WHO'S LIVIN BETTOR, put that one away around the turn, opened up and then was under the whip for the score. WHO'S LIVIN BETTOR ran for purse money only, vied for the lead early, tracked along the two path to no avail but did hold the place. QUICK AND EASY was well placed three from the rail on the turn, lodged a bid outside and hung. COOL MOUNTAIN was unhurried four wide on the turn, angled out and the lacked the late needed response. DIXIE NITE OUT lagged back along the two path, angled out and then failed to menace. DONE THAT was well placed up the backstretch, continued inside on the turn and tired.
