Footnotes

WINNING PAL broke well, tracked inside, challenged after a half mile, dueled to the top of the lane, cleared some and then widened under the whip proving clearly best. PORTLAND POINT set the pace off the rail, dueled the winner after a half mile to the top of the lane, chased but was no match. BULLDOG ON A BONE broke sluggishly, saved ground, took the three path into the lane and finished with interest. SNAP CALL was unhurried off the rail, hugged the rail on the last turn and weakened. STAGE DEBUT four wide into the backstretch, two path on the last turn and tired. ALWAYS FOR YOU stalked four wide on the first turn, four wide on the last turn and tired. JET SET CAT five wide up the backstretch, five wide into the lane and tired.
