Footnotes

GOLDFLEAFED MIRROR broke sharp from the outside to quickly gain the early advantage, steadily widen the margin up the backstretch, remained well clear entering the second turn and was never asked as much superior to the rest. BLONDE OKIE stalked the early pace just off the rail, steadily inched closer up the backstretch, made a bid entering the second turn but could only gain the place. R NANEE chased the early pace outside but could not keep pace. GLAD TO BE A LADY could only improve position. SHISHKBOB HAY forced the early pace from between foes but weakened in the drive. SUGAR HILL went evenly. MISS TIME was no factor. C. C.'S CRANE was never close. OKLAHOMA STAR up close early while outside, pulled up entering the backstretch and was vanned off.
