Footnotes

DOUG tracked the pace set by ZACK CAPE while three and four wide, moved to challenge into the far turn, drew clear and moved off under steady urging. COMMAND CAT saved ground and clear for the place while no threat to the winner. ZACK CAPE made the pace racing out from the rail and had nothing left nearing the lane. LITE THE CIGAR stalked the pace in good position three to four wide and had no closing bid. ELUSIVE WAYS was not a threat racing four wide. RED HOT FEVER saved ground and tired. I'M CATTY was not a factor racing outside. STORMS ROCK was always back racing four and five wide.
