Footnotes

REACH ONE MORE was content to settle off the early leaders while racing well out in the track, moved easily to challenge outside into the far turn and take command nearing the stretch, then held well under mild encouragement. SPEEDY CORVETTE stalked the pace from outside to challenge with the winner going to the far turn then could not match strides in the lane. MITT was five and six wide to give ground throughout and could not threaten the top pair in the lane. FROM THE ASHES made the pace racing out in the three to four path to the far turn and tired. TUTLES angled in through the first turn to establish position out from the rail and did not threaten. KING TYMATT pressed the pace from outside FROM THE ASHES to late backstretch and tired. BOXACROSS began to act up just prior to the gate opening, reared and then became entangled in the gate to stumble out and drop his rider.
