Footnotes

SIX GUN ROYAL soon had the advantage in hand between rivals, took the rail on the bend, lengthened his lead, responded to mild urging upper stretch and continued to draw away from the rest. CHEROKEE SCOOTs in contention early between horses, advanced two wide on the turn, fanned to path four entering the stretch and moved clear for second late. ROYAL OUTLAW broke inward, bumping DIXIE'S MICHAEL, was well placed inside, battled for second in the lane but did not have enough left deep stretch. RAGING WATER slowly carried out on the backstretch, was checked and angled in entering the turn, came into the lane three wide, checked upper stretch and passed a couple tiring rivals inside the last sixteenth. WYATT S pressed from between horses, took the turn three wide, fought for second in the stretch but did not have enough left in the waning yards. FORECLOSED prominent just outside the leader, proved no match for that one leaving the turn, dueled for the place just off the inside in the stretch but also wore down in the late going. BRUISERSBOLDNIGHT was an early factor toward the outside but faded four wide on the bend. DIXIE'S MICHAEL bumped at the start, was void of speed, though urged along, saved ground and lacked a stretch bid. SKIPPIN DYLAN gradually drifted out on the backstretch, was very wide through the turn and empty for the drive.
