Footnotes

ANGELS VALENTINE brushed with OURSECONDBUCK going to the half mile marker, was carried in by that one and held in tight quarters vying for the lead into the turn, put to a drive entering the stretch, drifted out despite a right whip through the drive and held off AMATEUR. The latter, caught in tight quarters along the rail battling for the early lead, steadied and then was forced to check back near the three-eighths pole, angled out into the stretch, drifted out also through the stretch but was getting to ANGELS VALENTINE late. REVERSE CODE steadily angled in vying for the early lead causing crowding into the turn, steadily angled outside ANGELS VALENTINE through the stretch to keep a clear path, was cut off by that one leaving the sixteenth pole and taken firmly in hand the last seventy yards. PRETTY GRETA broke in stride, was allowed to settle back outside, took the turn four wide and lacked a stretch response. OURSECONDBUCK brushed by ANGELS VALENTINE going to the half mile marker, was carried in while vying for the lead into the turn, dropped back from between horses shortly thereafter and came up empty in the drive. MARYBETH was finished three wide into the turn. The rider of AMATEUR lodged an objection against ANGELS VALENTINE, alleging interference at the three-eighths pole but after their review, the stewards did not alter the order of finish.
