Footnotes

SIR CATALACK vied for the lead outside MARCH VIOLET, moved clear leaving the second turn, challenged from inside midstretch but drew away under a steady drive inside the final sixteenth. GOLD CASE MOTEL was kept close just off the rail, two wide on the second turn, forced out some into the stretch, lugged in under a right whip near the eighth pole, loomed a threat along the rail, hung in the late going but was clearly second best. BREMER RED ROSE, rated inside, picked up her pace going to the second turn, angled out for room at the head of the lane, forced to go seven wide to stay clear of MARCH VIOLET going to the final furlong, took over third, was no match for the top pair but drew away for the show. JOYCE G, fractious in the gate, was at the back of the pack, stayed in paths three or four nearly all the way and only passed tired ones the last quarter mile. TIS BLUSHING I AM, a brief factor between rivals, failed to keep up while two to four wide through the second bend and lacked a stretch response. MARCH VIOLET was sent to the early lead, set a pressured pace inside, could not stay with SIR CATALACK on the second turn, tried to drift out leaving the second turn, was steadied then drifted out and was taken in hand several times through the stretch. FREEDOM SLEW prompted the pace from outside, began to fade navigating the second bend three to five wide, angled out to middle of the track to stay clear in the upper stretch and continued to give way. FALLON S steadily faded from outside once on the backstretch and had little left the last two and a half furlongs.
