Footnotes

CORONA HILLS stalked the pace from three wide, took the lead on the second turn, drew off when urged into the stretch and was kept to task to maintain command to the waning yards. COT DOT SUE, up close inside, drifted out some into the stretch, bumped with BULLS BEST near the three-sixteenths pole, rallied late three wide and took the place. SWEET LILLIAN was sent to the lead inside, set the pace two off the rail to the second turn but flattened out inside in the drive. SUBTLE THUNDER, void of speed off the rail, fanned out into the stretch but only passed tired ones from five wide. BULLS BEST raced forwardly three and four wide, advanced on the second turn, bumped with COT DOT SUE near the three-sixteenths pole as she began to tire and steadily faded. AMATEUR failed to be a factor racing off the rail. FLASHY WINNER angled in on the second turn but had little inside for the stretch run. DAILY'S LIL CHARM steadied in traffic going to the first turn and showed little inside.
