Footnotes

ROY L. unhurried and taken inside the first quarter mile, gradually progressed on the backstretch, waited for room just off the rail on the second bend, got through four wide into the lane, came to vie for the lead inside the final sixteenth and edged ahead in the waning yards. ENCHATIVEMEDALLIST vied for the lead from outside, was three wide through the second bend, moved ahead upper stretch, fought gamely between rivals deep stretch but did not have enough left. FAST ALBERT without early speed, moved up to contention from outside on the backstretch, lost ground four to six wide through the second turn, closed well in the lane, came up short but caught WILDWOOD PERFECT for third at the wire. WILDWOOD PERFECT rated from inside, progressed on the backstretch, rallied along the rail in the lane to loom a serious threat inside the final eighth but leveled off nearing the wire. CHEROKEE PAINT pressed from outside, backed up some while wide through the second bend and ran evenly the last quarter mile. GEORGIE MY BOY broke in stride and was quickly clear, challenged from outside leaving the first turn, stayed just off the inside on the backstretch and second turn, was overtaken from both sides entering the stretch and steadily gave way.
