Footnotes

YONA TORY was sent to contest the pace just off the inside, moved ahead on the second bend, asked leaving that bend, clear in the lane, floated out some deep stretch but maintained control under steady handling. DIRK'S THE ONE steadied in close quarters along the rail on the first turn, progressed from along the rail, waited for room early in the second bend, got through three wide midway on that turn and took over second, drifted out midstretch, held a straight path inside the last furlong but could only stay clear for the place. INDY KINGS DANCER never far back while just off the inside, bid in the lane, gained third, had a striking position midstretch, leveled off instead but was easily best of the rest. PHIL N MARTY bumped from inside midway on the first turn, bumped with PEOPLE DONT CHANGE again after entering the backstretch, was prominent four or five wide for more than six furlongs, weakened for the drive and lugged in late. GROOVY ANNIE broke alertly, vied for the lead just outside YONA TORY, began to back up on the second turn, in path four entering the stretch then lugged in as he wore down. PEOPLE DONT CHANGE lunged leaving the gate and bumped with ROSCOE'S ROCKET, angled out some looking for room on the first turn, bumped PHIL N MARTY, was bumped by the latter after entering the backstretch and found himself boxed in, began to retreat along the rail on the second turn and continued to flatten through the lane. ROSCOE'S ROCKET stayed off the inside and showed little.
