Footnotes

R RICH E. RICH bumped with MAMONIUM MOON at the break, shared the lead outside that one, took the advantage inside the furlong marker, was clear after entering the final sixteenth and gradually lengthened under a drive. MAMONIUM MOON bumped with R RICH E. RICH at the start, vied for the lead along or just off the rail, tried hard in the lane but did not have enough left. WILL'S HONEY broke alertly, was soon chasing the top pair while four wide between horses, battled for third in the stretch and edged ahead of HOLY ARMENIA late. HOLY ARMENIA brushed by R RICH E. RICH at the start, was hustled along three wide, fought for third through the lane but slowly yielded deep stretch. PORTERVILLE chased the pacesetters while widest for three and a half furlongs, floated out further entering the stretch and flattened.
