Footnotes

RED HOT REDHEAD was sent to dispute the pace from inside, moved clear into the lane and gradually opened up under steady handling. SMALL KISS vied for the lead two wide between rivals, could not stay with RED HOT REDHEAD leaving the bend, fought for second through the stretch and narrowly prevailed. AIR STRIPE also contested the pace, but three wide, through the early going, battled for the place in the stretch but did not have enough in the waning yards. SMITTENBUTSPITTIN' dueled for the lead from outside, improved position four wide taking the turn then ran evenly the last quarter mile. LITTLE JEANNIE in contention between rivals, moved to the inside nearing the turn, progressed along the rail through the bend, angled out midstretch and made up some ground late on the second flight. FANNING THE FLAME was an early factor from outside but gave way widest through the turn. BELLA RED MARIE displayed early speed between horses but faded three wide on the bend.
