Footnotes

HOPEFUL SWEEPER contested the pace just off the inside, took the rail on the turn, moved clear when asked upper stretch and held on under steady handling. ROYAL RENAISSANCE saved ground through the bend, altered out upper stretch, drifted out a bit further, held a straight path the last eighth, closed well but too late. SWIFT MELVA without speed from inside, kept the rail through the bend, made a strong move the final furlong but came up short as well. FLYING PHOEBE hesitated at the break, chased from outside, was three then four wide through the turn, rallied belatedly the final eighth, was steadied briefly when close to GRETA'S RAP with a sixteenth to go and was also too late. GRETA'S RAP broke inward, dueled for the lead outside HOPEFUL SWEEPER, could not stay with that one upper stretch, faded between rivals the last furlong and was found to have bled from the nostrils. HALFDRESSED broke in the air, trailed, was two and three wide taking the bend, showed a willingness to run deep stretch and was angled outside for a clear path with a sixteenth left.
