Footnotes

OILISBLACKGOLD settled off the pace and off the fence, stalked three wide around two turns, moved up and challenged outside, drifted four wide into the stretch, gained lead then kicked clear and won with authority despite lugging out late. ARRAIGNMENT tracked the pace from the inside, remained prominent from either along the rail or between horses, came out slightly in the stretch and rallied to gain second. ACHAK (IRE) was off tardily then angled over, chased inside then two wide, angled back out, caught four wide on second turn, advanced outside and on same path into the stretch and gained show from the outside. FIRST BLUE ANGEL forced the early pace while under snug hold and outside pacesetter, roused nearing final turn, bid passing quarter marker, gained brief lead but could not match the winner and weakened from the inside. MICHAEL THE MAN chased either between horses or bit off the rail, continued to save ground into the stretch, shifted to the rail late and weakened. HONOUR THE DEPUTY stalked from the outside, remained either four or three wide chasing the pace and also weakened. DUNMORE EAST lagged back in the early going, also saved ground throughout but never threatened. THINKING OF GIRLS was sent to front, rated along the inside, resisted when challenged on the final backstretch then was overtaken passing quarter marker and gave way.
