Footnotes

MEMPHIS MOBSTER was floated out around the initial turn, content to pressure the pacesetter while outside that rival to final turn, roused and finally wore down leader in the drive before edging away nearing the finish. LANA'S SMILE drifted out around the first turn, came in and dictated the pace from the inside, resisted when challenged around the last turn and well into the stretch but could not go with the winner approaching the wire. QUILLLOTANO was slow into stride, content to lag back while saving ground, came out on the final turn, split horses, rallied three wide into lane and gained the show. DOC CAN DANCE was bit restless in the gate, pulled his way to forward position early, stalked on two wide path, continued inside then along the rally and lost third late. TIZ A KNIGHT settled off the pace then was taken to the rail, remained inside thereafter and weakened. GAME A. P. chased from off the rail and on three wide path to final turn, fanned five wide entering the stretch and failed to menace. WARREN'S KONG was antsy in the gate, stalked two wide and outside rival, lugged out leaving the last turn and weakened.
