Footnotes

GRAND MANEUVER stalked four then three wide opening two turns, nudged and advanced outside, reached front then disposed of inside rival and convincingly scored with rider looking back and ridden out. WHAT'S THE RUMPUS was sent to the front while angling over, set pace while slightly off the fence then along the rail, overtaken on final backstretch but comfortably held second. LEMON DROP RIDGE chased from along the rail, came out some then three wide exiting the final bend and cleared for third. BIG KISS content to lag back while bit off the rail, later chased three then four wide entering the stretch and improved placing. RED MOUNTAIN outside foe early, chased two wide then later along the rail and lacked needed response. REGROUP rank from between foes on the first turn, settled leaving then bend, chased inside then hard to handle on the second bend, later came four wide into the lane and was no factor. PRINCE MIKE three wide early tracking the leaders, hard asked and moved up bit leaving second turn, then dropped back and gave way steadily.
