Footnotes

CLEAR CREEK CANYON was hustled from the gate and sprinted clear in the opening stages, set all of the pace from well off the rail and responded in the stretch to hold driving. DEMON WARLOCK was never too far back, raced between horses and five wide on the turn then finished steadily in the lane. JAMICAN BLUE tracked the winner from the outset, swung outside the winner at the quarter pole but the rider lost his whip entering the lane and lacked further response. SHADOW RAIDER lacked good early speed, saved some ground on the turn and finished evenly. GHOST MEMO chased the winner outside JAMICAN BLUE to the stretch and weakened. SAVANNAH THUMPER settled early, tried to rally six wide on the turn but came up empty.
