Footnotes

COACH BOB broke in stride to take command from the gate and crossed nearer the rail on the backstretch while under good rating, responded in the upper stretch and drew clear and won driving. HANDSOME HARVEY JR was never too far back, saved ground on the turn and finished steadily but could not bother the winner. RED CREME settled early, was bumped leaving the half mile pole, quickly recovered, rallied two wide to the stretch and lost his punch. BLUES BLASTER also was permitted to settle, circled three wide on the turn but lacked the needed response. ERIC THE RAM saved ground to no avail. TOSS THE DICE was not asked for speed early, lugged out nearing the half mile pole and bumped with Red Creme and stumbled, then failed to offer a bid. STREETS OF HEAVEN showed little. The stewards conducted an inquiry and reviewed TOSS THE DICE and RED CREME's runs at the half mile pole but ruled that TOSS THE DICE was at fault and allowed the original finish to stand.
