Footnotes

THE ONLY KEY (GB) raced up three wide to the backstretch to gain a favorable striking position once on the backstretch, was under patient handling to the second turn, rallied three wide into the stretch to loom a bold factor nearing the furlong pole but was all out to get by BERTIE late. BERTIE set all of the pace from off the rail, drifted slightly into the lane but kept to her task and proved tough to wear down late. TWO THIRDS VICTORY prompted the pace from the rail throughout, had her best bid at the furlong pole then could make no further impact while trying gamely. SHES A LUCKY WAGER raced unhurried from off the rail early, came three wide to the stretch to rally into the lane but lost some of her punch in the late stages. PERFECT SOULMATE settled early, followed the winner into the stretch but slackened in the drive. ASTUZIA saved ground to no avail. CAMPEENYA settled early from the rail, was just off the rail on the second turn and came up empty.
