Footnotes

BEV'S EX was a bit slow at the start but was quickly in contention and stalked the dueling leaders from off the rail, rallied outside once in the stretch, took command in mid stretch and drew clear driving. NAUTICAL RULE dueled from the rail into the stretch and kept gamely to his task to hold the place. VELIKAYA broke alertly but slipped back early, came four wide on the turn and finished steadily. REVOLUTA dueled three wide to the stretch, edged clear briefly at the furlong pole but faded late. STILORGAN raced unhurried early then lacked a rally while three wide on the turn. SEEKING HONOR saved ground to no avail. TERRACE ISLAND broke a step slow but was quickly in stride and dueled between horses to the stretch and weakened. DUBLIN'S LIFFEY settled early then failed to rally while racing off the rail into the stretch. JO'S WILD ABANDON steadied after the start and was outrun. THE JOY OF SIX showed little.
