Footnotes

THUNDERCLAP NEWMAN was not asked for speed early while racing just off the rail, moved closer into the second turn, quickly circled rivals four wide to the stretch, took command nearing the furlong pole and drew clear driving. MAGIC SPIRIT settled early three wide but was always within striking distance, remained three wide into the stretch and finished steadily. CALLDEROLL set all of the pace from the inside, was headed on the second turn, came off the rail in the upper stretch, drifted back in at the sixteenth pole and weakened. PREACHER WILLIE was unhurried early two wide, rallied from the rail into the stretch, tried to get through inside CALLDEROLL at the sixteenth pole, steadied and lost his chance. KELLY'S GOLDEN WON tracked the pace from the rail to the stretch, eased out in the upper stretch but had no rally. BENEZIT was unhurried early three wide, came four wide to the stretch but did not rally. STEFANELLI stalked the pace three wide early, had his best bid two wide on the second turn and came up empty in the lane. CARLSBAD LAGOON saved ground to no avail. RHYTHM IN MAY flashed brief speed only. The stewards posted the inquiry and reviewed the stretch runs of CALLEROLL and PREACHER WILLIE and for interference at the sixteenth pole, disqualified CALLDEROLL and placed in fourth.
