Footnotes

AFSANA was settled off the pacesetter, bid two wide into the second turn, was bumped off balance by the runnerup leaving the quarter pole, recovered and responded in the drive and inched away late. FRENCH TART broke a bit slow then was outrun for a half, bid inside on the second turn, tried to force between rivals leaving the quarter pole, bumped the winner, responded to get a head in front in mid stretch but hung through the final sixteenth. RED POPPY was also settled to the half, got fanned four wide while gaining ground to the stretch then lost her punch. DIXIELAND HOLIDAY broke a step slow, trailed to the stretch and lacked a rally. BEV'S SUMMER SONG sped clear to the second turn while inside but tired after six furlongs. OH BOO HOO was also settled early, raced three wide throughout but gave way. The stewards conducted an inquiry into the bumping incident involving the top two finishers but in a unanimous decision failed to make a change to the order of finish.
