Footnotes

DOUBLE EPISODE was not asked for speed while racing three wide to the backstretch, offered an early bid from the outside to reach contention after a half mile, continued four wide on the second turn to rally into the stretch, gained command nearing the furlong pole and outfinished TRIBAL SKY late. TRIBAL SKY raced unhurried early from the rail, worked his way outside on the backstretch, followed the winner into the lane four wide, had his bid at the furlong pole but could not get by. BLAZING was void of any early speed, was fanned five wide on the second turn and closed willingly. CHISENAU was never too far back, raced in traffic from off the rail on the second turn and into the stretch but closed with some speed. SIX PACK ATTACK stalked the pace from the outset, offered his bid three wide on the second turn to take command into the stretch but lost his punch. TAKING A SHOT was void of early speed, rallied into the stretch then flattened out. GREEK ANGELS saved ground to no avail. REGAL FEVER stalked the pace from the rail for six furlongs and came up empty. FREE LOVIN' pressed the pace two wide for six furlongs and gave out. MR. GOODFELLOW set the pace from the rail until the five sixteenths and stopped.
