Footnotes

CLASSIC CRUSADER broke cleanly but was taken back and raced under patient handling to the turn, moved up four wide to the stretch then responded once set down to rally willingly and gained command late to win going away. TROPILUK pressed the pace two wide from the outset, forged to the front leaving the furlong pole but could not hold the winner. BIRDIEBOBTOO stalked the pace three wide into the stretch but lacked the needed response. BROCK SAYS was bumped hard at the start and steadied, raced up inside once recovered to loom a factor from the rail into the stretch and faltered. VANILLA FLAVOR was not asked for speed to the turn, angled three wide into the lane and finished willingly from the outside. HEHASGUTS set the pace from the inside into the stretch and slackened. SOCKS DON'T MATCH was bumped hard at the start and steadied, recovered, eased to the outside and offered a quick bid four wide into the turn, remained out to the stretch but had little left.
