Footnotes

SOUND'O GLORY was a pace factor from the outset, was crowded inside of SOUND'O GLORY from the half mile pole to about the three eighths, rallied inside to take over on the second turn, then responded in the drive and edged clear. MERRY MARINO tracked the leaders to the second turn, was three then four wide to the stretch, could not impact the winner but was the best of the rest. GARY'S GOT RHYTHM was allowed to settle for a half mile, came two wide to the stretch but lacked the needed late response. BAG'S OF FUN showed good speed, dueled off the rail for a half mile, dueled the winner while three wide to the stretch then weakened. HONOR GULCH had no speed, raced three wide to the stretch but failed to threaten. SOUPY was very rank immediately after leaving the gate, took about two or three seconds to settle, lost about eight lengths to the field and lost any chance.
