Footnotes

BARREL KNOT jumped clear in the opening strides to set all of the pace, saved some ground on the turn then responded gamely in the upper stretch and held driving. COST OF FREEDOM chased the winner from off the rail throughout and could make no impact. GUTSHOT STRAIGHT settled early, angled off the rail nearing the quarter pole and went evenly in the drive. LORNEFIVEHUNDRED raced unhurried early, dropped inside to rally to mid stretch then flattened out. PREMIUM QUALITY lagged to the turn, swung three wide into the stretch but had no response. SOLD SHORT flashed brief speed only.
