Footnotes

VALENTINO BILL broke alertly then was permitted to fall back and raced unhurried to the turn, circled rivals with a quick rally five wide into the lane, took command leaving the furlong pole and drew clear driving. MICKEY BALL settled early and raced unhurried from the inside, continued inside on the turn and finished steadily but proved no match for the winner. TORREYS K T M was not asked for speed early, advanced four wide to the stretch and flattened out. I B MIKE was never took far back, had his best bid three wide into the stretch but could not go with the leaders late. SINGLETARY BLITZ raced up between horses after the break to prompt the pace but began to fade two wide at mid turn. ATTA BOY LUCKY broke slow and was a few strides catching hold then showed good speed to gain a lead in the opening quarter, maintained an advantage after a half but had nothing left for the drive.
