Footnotes

FOR SURE FOR SURE settled early from the outside but was always within striking distance, raced in the two path for much of the turn, swung to the extreme outside for the drive and offered a bold rally to take command in the late stretch and won going away. BAD GIRL BAD GIRL dueled from the rail to the deep stretch but could not hold the winner. MY LITTLE MORGAN prompted the pace from the three path well into the stretch and slackened. FIVE SILVER STARS pressed the pace between horses to the turn, slipped back slightly and was two wide to the stretch but lacked a closing response. YASUDA was well placed early, raced three wide into the lane, the rider dropped his whip leaving the three sixteenths pole and faded. BONNET'S CAYDENCE was never a factor.
