Footnotes

ALMA LEE was quickly in front and set all of the pace in hand, responded to very brief coaxing in the upper stretch to draw off and was never asked for her best. RED DELICIOUS broke alertly then slipped back, came three wide to rally into the stretch but could never threaten the winner. SARSFIELD'S RIDE lacked good early speed, was always three wide on the turn and came on without reaching serious contention. TRIBAL Z lagged early, eased off the rail near the quarter pole and passed only tiring horses. SWEET BROWN SUGAR stalked the winner from the outside for a half mile and came up empty. NEW HYDE PARK chased the winner to the turn from the rail and gave out. CANDI'S BRIDLE was well placed early but faded steadily two wide on the turn.
